REALTY AUCTION TO-NIGHT.

Brooklyn Exchange to Be Scene o Realisation Sale.

The public will gain many opportunities to buy property cheaply through the new policy decided upon by the Bond and Mortgage Company, which will dispose of real estate required for one reason or another within a reasonable time after its acquisition. The first opportunity of this kind will be presented to-night when the Jere Johnson, Jr. Company will offer several parcels in Brooklyn and Queens, at unreserved auction, in the Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange, 189 Monfague street. The sale will begin at 7.30 o'clock.

Clarence W. Kelsey, president of the sale will begin at 7.30 o'clock.

Clarence W. Kelsey, president of the Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Company, also president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, said yesterday: "It is apparent from recent events in the auction market that there are a few wise ones who realize that this is the time to buy, when the market is depressed and where there is svery indication that a change for the better is in sight. The prudent buyer is always a little sheed real estate market will be very great.

"The Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Company would not sell this land if it was a speculator, for it realizes that it is selling probably just before the market is about to strengthen and prices to advance. Its business is the gray and the latest the company of mortgages and it is its guaranteeing of mortgages and it is its duty not to speculate in real estate, and therefore it sells, whatever the market so as to keep its books clear of real estate ownership as much as possibl
